Election to be held on Thursday, August 7th, 1873.

IN ANOTHER column appears a communication from a correspondent to which we invite attention. Barring certain phrases or expressions used by our friend, we heartily endorse his remarks. The importance of voting down any and all amendments to the Constitution proposed by the Democracy should be understood and rigidly carried out. We do not believe in the necessity of alterations. The Constitution as it stands is good enough and it is setting a bad precedent for the people to consent to any changes at this time. The unanimity and gentleness with which the democracy advocate these amendments carry on their face the necessity for our opposition. We all remember the desperate effort made by the former democratic legislature to force a constitutional convention upon the people without the sanction of law, and although they were utterly defeated, and had gone before the people with the solemn statement that they would be compelled by reason of their oaths to levy a tax for the payment of the State debt, they neglected to do it and now their successors are attempting a change in another form.

Speaking of the amendments, the Raleigh Sentinel says:

Some of our contemporaries are apprehensive that there will be a large Republican vote against the constitutional amendments. There are no signs of it in these parts. James Harris, colored, and Mr. R. C. Badger were for the amendments before the Legislature. If they have not rotated they are for them to-day.

Mr. Read, of Warren, a Republican of standing, says he is sure there will be no issue made upon the amendments.
However, we must not fail to vote because everybody has been, or pretended to be, for the constitutional amendments.

We are strongly of the opinion that the Sentinel will find after election day, that the vote will hardly be as unanimous as its friends believe.

Important to Voters.

The Raleigh News publishes the following instructions which should be carefully heeded. It comes to us in an official shape, being signed by the Chairman of the several State Committees, and should be cut out for future reference:

RALEIGH, N. C., July 23d, 1873.

The undersigned, in reply to inquiries made from different parts of the State as to what are the requisites in submitting the constitutional amendments to the people will state:

1st. The Sheriff in every county in the State shall open the polls at the several election precincts in his county on the first Thursday in August next, and the same shall be kept open one day, from the hour of 8 A. M., until the hour of 7 P. M., when every person qualified to vote according to the constitution may vote for or against each amendment on a written or printed ticket.

2d. The County Commissioners, or upon their failure, the inspectors of election shall provide for each election precinct—eight ballot boxes, one for each amendment to be voted on.

Each of said boxes shall have attached thereto a written or printed label, designating the amendments to be voted on therein, and after the close of the election the judge shall count out separately the number of votes cast, for and against the amendment.

(See chap. 153, acts 1872-73.) We would suggest the following as the form of one of the tickets:

Amendment to N. C. Constitution in relation to Public Debt (chap. 85, acts 1872-73.)

For amendment—(or when so desired, say) against amendment.
Of course each ticket must be prepared to suit each amendment of which there are eight.

EDITORIAL BUDGET.

John P. Hale's surgeons deem it not advisable to attempt to set his hip, and it is considered doubtful if he can recover. He suffers extreme pain, and is able to lie only in one position. He had returned from a ride to the Great Falls previous to the accident, and felt unusually well.

A consistory will be held at Rome for the nomination of bishops. The cardinals there have had instructions from the Vatican not to receive the Curé of Santa Cruz on his arrival in Rome.
The commission for the liquidation of ecclesiastical property has opened its session.

The Carlists have made a formal demand of France for the recognition of their rights as belligerents. The French Government has refused, and declares that it will remain perfectly neutral.
In accordance with this policy, it has forbidden the Spanish Republicans from sending succor to Puyecorda by way of Port Vendres, a French town on the Mediterranean.

The French Assembly, after a most excited debate, adopted the bill empowering the permanent committee, which sits during the recess, to prosecute the insulters of the Assembly. M. Ernoul, in the course of a vigorous speech, denounced dictatorship as the daughter of license, and declared that tyrannical republics were sure to beget Caesars.

It is officially announced that the fortified town of Mezieres, capital of the Department of the Ardennes and Charleville, on the opposite side of the river Meuse, in the same Department, were evacuated by the German forces, which have occupied them since the conclusion of the war. The staff of the army of General Manteuffel, the commander of the army of occupation, will remain at Dancy for a short time. After the departure from that city the Verdun district will be the only French territory occupied by German troops.

A Paris special says that the proposition for recognition of the Carlists has been more than once discussed in the French Cabinet. Duke de Broglie favors treating with the Government of Don Carlos, as the only power capable of performing the functions of the Government in Spain. President McMahon is willing to accept Broglie's views, even if he were not himself compromised by his promises to the friends of Don Carlos, but other members of the Ministry apprehend that such a course would greatly excite France, and too glaringly countenance and recognize the monarchical tendency as right. The Carlists, however, are confident of early recognition, and are encouraged by their recent successes everywhere. There is a general disorganization in Spain of every power that could have opposed them, and despondency and hopelessness seem to have seized the Republicans.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

The Postmaster General has extended the free-delivery system to twenty-five dered to convene at Fort Monroe. The detail of the court consists of eleven officers, and the instructions are for the trial of all such persons as may be brought before it.

Setty ordered to the receiving ship sistant Engineer J. A. B. Smith to the

A telegram was received at the War Department Wednesday from the Military Academy stating that Cadet Israel W. Pennis, of the third class, was drowned Tuesday evening while bathing. His body has been recovered, and his parents have been informed. He was a native of Illinois, and represented the 15th Congressional district of

TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be well to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St.
Louis, "the future great City of the world."
This line, the
ST. LOUIS & SOUTHEASTERN RAIL-WAY,

has, during the past year, earned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magnificence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the Westinghouse air-brake.

It is positively the only line running Pullman Palace Drawing-Room Sleeping Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time, or equipment. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis or the West by any other line, remember that the "St. Louis & Southeastern" is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.

You can secure the cheapest rates for yourself and your movables on application, in person or by letter, to CHARLES McCABE, Southern Passenger Agent, near College street Depot, Nashville, Tenn., or to the undersigned.

CITY OF WILMINGTON, N. C.,

July 18th, 1873.

Prospectus for 1873.

SIXTH YEAR.

THE ALDINE.

An illustrated monthly journal, universally admitted to be the handsomest periodical in the world. A representative and champion of American taste.

NOT FOR SALE IN BOOK OR NEWS STORES.

THE ALDINE, WHILE ISSUED WITH all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light and graceful literature, and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached in its kind. It is published without competition in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any shape or number of volumes, for ten times its cost, and then there are the chromos besides!

ART DEPARTMENT.

Notwithstanding the increase in the price of subscription last fall, when THE ALDINE assumed its present noble proportions and representative character, the edition was more than doubled during the past year, proving that the American public appreciate, and will support, a sincere effort in the cause of Art. The publishers, anxious to justify the ready confidence thus demonstrated, have exerted themselves to the utmost to develop and improve the work; and the plans for the coming year, as unfolded by the monthly issues, will astonish and delight even the most sanguine friends of THE ALDINE.

The publishers are authorized to announce designs from many of the most eminent artists of America. In addition THE ALDINE will reproduce examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success and greatest general interest, avoiding such as have become familiar through photographs, or copies of any kind.

The quarterly United States, for 1873, will reproduce four of John S. Davis' imimitable child-sketches appropriate to four seasons. These plates, appearing in the issues for January, April, July and October, would be alone worth the price of a year's subscription.

The popular feature of a copiously-illustrated "Christmas" number will be continued. To possess such a valuable epitome of the art world, at a cost so trifling, will command the subscription of thousands in every section of the country, but as the usefulness and attractions of THE ALDINE can be enhanced, in proportion to the numerical increase of its supporters, the publishers propose to keep THE ALDINE as sure by the following unparalleled offer of

PREMIUM CHROMOS FOR 1873:

Every subscriber to THE ALDINE, who pays in advance for the year 1873, will receive without additional charge a pair of beautiful oil chromos, after J. J. Hill, the eminent English painter. The pictures are entitled "The Village Belle" and "Crossing the Moor" are 14x20 inches—each framed in 25 different plates, requiring 25 impressions and tints to perfect each picture. The same chromos are sold for $30 per pair in the art stores. As it is the determination of the conductors to keep THE ALDINE out of the reach of competition in every department, the chromos will be found correspondingly ahead of any that can be offered by other periodicals. Every subscriber will receive a certificate, over the signature of the publishers, guaranteeing that the chromos delivered shall be equal to the samples furnished the agent, or the money will be refunded. The distribution of this grade, free to the subscribers of a $5 periodical, will mark an epoch in the history of art, and considering the unprecedented cheapness of the price for THE ALDINE itself, the marvel falls little short of a miracle, even to those best acquainted with the achievements of inventive genius and improved mechanical appliances. (For illustrations of these chromos see Nov. issue of THE ALDINE.)

THE LITERARY DEPARTMENT will continue under the care of Mr. Richard Henry Stoddard, assisted by the best writers and poets of the day, who will strive to have the literature of THE ALDINE always in keeping with its artistic attractions.

TERMS:

FIVE DOLLARS per annum, in advance, with oil-chromos free. THE ALDINE will hereafter be obtained only by subscription. There will be no reduced or club rate; cash for subscription must be sent to the publishers direct, or handed to the local agent, without responsibility to the publishers, except in cases where the certificate is given, bearing the fact-simile signature of Jas. Sutton & Co. AGENTS WANTED.

Any person wishing to act permanently as a local agent, will receive full and prompt information by applying to JAS. SUTTON & CO., Publishers, No. 58 Maiden Lane, New York.

THE FASHIONABLE SOUVENIR.

FOR THE HOLIDAY SEASON. This year will be THE SUPERB VOLUME OF THE ALDINE.

Nicely bound in morocco cloth, assorted covers, beveled boards, red edges, gilt on back and sides—a truly royal volume—a gallery of fine art engravings that will be at once a great pleasure to the recipient, and a demonstration of the taste of the donor. There are about 200 plates, most of which could not be matched in size or quality in the art stores at a dollar each. They comprise designs by the leading painters and draughtsmen of day, giving the widest range of figure, animal and landscape subjects, combined with pure, light and graceful literature, edited by the poet scholar, Richard Henry Stoddard, forming a most attractive ornament for the parlor or library.

THE NEW YORK WEEKLY TIMES

AS A FAMILY PAPER.

The Times will have no superior; it will be free from all appeals to vulgar and impure tastes, and may be safely admitted to every domestic circle.

AS A REPUBLICAN JOURNAL.

The Times will be devoted, as in the past, to an intelligent and firm support of the Republican Party. Its course in reference to the Tammany Ring, at a time when all the other daily papers in New York obstructed and discouraged its efforts, attests its sincerity in the cause of Reform. The Times stood alone in demanding Reform from 1860 to the close of 1871, and there is no sincere and honest proposal for Reform, in any branch of the Government, which will not be heartily supported by the Times. But it will not confine its assistance to ambitious politicians or demagogues to reach power under false pretenses. It will not encourage defection from the Republican Party, which is still the party of progress, security and national prosperity.

It will sustain, with all the force and influence at its command, the principles and policy which have rendered that party so justly famous in our history. It will advocate those measures by which the honor, the peace, and the prosperity of the nation can be best secured and promoted, and will constantly study the wants of the people rather than the wishes of the politicians.

THE NEW YORK SEMI-WEEKLY TIMES

Is published every Tuesday and Friday, and contains all the agricultural and literary matter of the Weekly edition, and a full and careful compilation of editorial and news features of the Times.

Terms of the Semi-Weekly Times: One copy, one year, $3; two copies, one year, $5; ten copies, one year, $25—and one extra copy free.

Subscriptions to either of our editions received for a less length of time than one year at yearly rate.

These prices are invariable. Remit in drafts on New York or Post-office Money Orders, if possible, and where neither of these can be procured, send the money in a registered letter. All Post-masters are obliged to register letters when requested to do so, and the system is an absolute protection against losses by mail. Address THE NEW YORK TIMES, New York City.

We especially call the attention to the following testimonials of the Paint:

C. Knight, Esq.—Dear Sir: I have used Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint on my dwelling last Spring, and am much pleased with it, and it looks as well now as when first painted, and consider it a good Paint. Yours, truly, Cresswell P. O., Hartford county, Md., Feb. 6th, 1873. A. H. STRASSBAUGH.

THE PLAINS, FAUCIQUO, VA., Feb. 6th, 1873.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Sir: The Paint came safely to hand as ordered—two kegs, five gallons each, and three buckets, one gallon each. As practice was slack, I did the job myself. Two weeks, (not constant work), completed the house two coats. The last coat I applied thick, and it is now generally conceded that for enamel-like hardness, and body, and harmony of colors, there is not a handsomer job in the place. I saved sixty-five dollars by the operation, which is an item just now with Southern people. It should be generally adopted in this State. Any country lad can apply it. I have never dabbled in such stock as testimonials, but I feel so forcibly the great adaptability of your "Enamel Paint" to the wants of our people, in excellency of material, in beauty of color, and in the fact of its being "ready mixed" that I give you free permission, (if it is desirable to you), to make use of the same without proper of this letter.

Very respectfully and truly, S. MCGILL, M. D.

To the Public.—It affords me much pleasure to state that in July, 1871, Front Street Theatre was painted inside and out with "Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint," for which C. P. Knight, No. 98 West Lombard Street, is agent, and, to testify to its superiority over any and all other paints for similar use, in no private dwelling can paint possibly be subjected to the very severe test it undergoes at this establishment, where, during our daily cleaning, soap and soda are constantly applied to it, and yet it appears as sound and fresh as when put on. Of the numerous advantages it possesses over other paints, I will only mention its being mixed and ready for use in quantities to suit purchasers, its quickly drying properties, which saves much time in the execution of work, and its perfectly uniform color, and its very perceptible tenacity, which imparts beauty and durability to the objects on which it is used. As such I most earnestly recommend it to the merchants and tradesmen of our city, believing it will give them greater satisfaction than they can possibly anticipate. WM. E. SINN.

BALTIMORE, April 25, 1873. Front Street Theatre. CHAMBERSBURG, December 10th, 1873.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—The paints we received from you have been applied to several of our own buildings and to those of our friends, and have given entire satisfaction in covering qualities, in gloss, and in adaptability to all kinds of surface of material and we cheerfully commend it to that class of consumers who have to depend upon unknown parties, or painters to mix and furnish materials, wherein we have found the most deception.

Yours, truly, JACOB STOUFFER & SON.

FROM HON. JOHN WETHERED.

Mr. C. P. Knight—At the recommendation of a friend, I was induced to apply your patent "Bradley's" paint to my house. I have pleasure in stating that it has proved highly satisfactory, covering more surface than you promised, is more economical, carries better gloss than ordinary paint, and is freer from disagreeable odor.

Yours, Respectfully, JOHN WETHERED.

BALTIMORE, December 27th, 1871.

C. P. Knight, Esq., Agent for Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint, Dear Sir:—The paint we purchased from you we will cheerfully endorse as the best of any kind we have ever used; its covering qualities are everything desired, drying promptly and with a hard gloss which we think, resist the action of all kinds of weather. This is our experience, and we can recommend it with certainty, and intend to use it on all occasions where we desire a good job of work.

Very Respectfully, EMART & QUARTLEY, 270 W. Baltimore St. House, Sign and Fresco Painters. PLEASANTVILLE, HARTFORD CO., MD.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—I am very happy to inform you that your "Patent Enamel Paint" is doing us good service. I prefer it to any paint I have ever seen used, and recommend it for durability and beauty as paramount to any other.

Very Respectfully, R. DICKEY, M. D. C. P. KNIGHT, Sole Agent, No. 93 W. Lombard Street, Baltimore.
